Lead Us Back
Bobby Gilles and Brooks Ritter

D          B\textsuperscript{m}
Falling down upon our knees

G          A          D
Sharing now in common shame

B\textsuperscript{m}

We have sought security

D          G          A
Not the cross that bears your name

F\textsuperscript{#m}          B\textsuperscript{m}
Fences guard our hearts and homes

G          A          D
Comfort sings a siren tune

D          B\textsuperscript{m}
We’re a valley of dry bones

G          A          D
Lead us back to life in you.

Lord we fall upon our knees
We have shunned the weak poor
Worshipped beauty courted kings
And the things their gold affords
Prayed for those we’d like to know
Favor sings a siren tune
We’ve become a talent show
Lead us back to life in you
Lead Us Back
Bobby Gilles and Brooks Ritter

Lord you’ve caused the blind to see
We have blinded them again
With our manmade laws and creeds
Eager ready to condemn
Now we plead before your throne
Power sings a siren tune
We’ve been throwing heavy stones
Lead us back to life in you.

Ending
We’re a valley of dry bones
Lead us back to life in you.
We’ve become a talent show
Lead us back to life in you
We’ve been throwing heavy stones
Lead us back to life in you.
