

Psalm 57

Jeremy Quillo

F#m A E D (4th time stay on E)

Be merciful to me, O God, for my refuge is in You
In the shelter of Your mighty wings I will rest my weary soul
I cry out unto the God Most High, for Your promises are true,
How the God of Heaven rescued me in His faithfulness and love

A E D

Be exalted, Oh my God, above the heavens, above the earth
And Your glory shall be known,
in all the heavens, in all the earth.

F#m A E D (4th time stay on E)

I was rescued from my enemies, at the place where I did fall,
So my heart will sing a melody, I will offer You my song
And my soul will wake to bring You praise, for You have heard my call
My instruments will sing of You with the rising of the dawn.

F#m A E D (4th time stay on E)

We will praise You, Lord, let the nations hear and the people join our cries
For Your love is great, and Your faithfulness reaches far above the skies.
