SOJOURN COLLEGE STAFF - STUDENT MOBILIZER

SOJOURN CHURCH MIDTOWN

Mission Connection

The vision of Sojourn Church Midtown is to reach people with the gospel, build them together as a multi-cultural church, and send them as witnesses into their neighborhoods and the nations. To that end, Sojourn College Staff further Sojourn's vision among Louisville's college students. In other words, we want to see college students give their lives to Jesus, trained up to love Him with their whole being, and sent out to make disciples for the rest of their lives, whether that be overseas, as part of a church plant, or in Louisville.

Responsibilities

Staff Member

- Presence and participation in Midtown and SC staff meetings/trainings
- Attend and engage students at SC Gathered/Late Nights
- Serve at bi-weekly student Leader Huddles
- Help plan and participate in student events and trips
- Regular coaching meetings with Director or Sojourn College
- Irregular meetings with students, outside of discipleship meetings, as the need arises

Missions Mobilization

- Work directly with Sojourn International to mobilize students to the mission field through internships with our sent ones, Hands On program, Journeyman, A18, etc.
- Come alongside and disciple students as they discern a call to mission
- Establish systems and relationships to engage international students

Discipleship

- Prepare and lead 2-3 Discipleship Groups that meet weekly

The Acts 1:8 Project

- Plan and execute our 8-week summer missions intern program, in which students spend their summer learning about 3 different spheres of missions, working in Louisville, alongside church plants, and internationally

Character and Competencies

- Fulfill the character and qualifications of a deacon as outlined in Scripture and the Sojourn Constitution
- Conviction and ability to make disciples who make disciples
- Self-aware, understands gifts and limitations
- Demonstrates humility and a desire to learn and grow
- Has a long view for SC students — desires and works towards them being life long disciples, not simply while they are in college
- Embodies the six Sojourn Church Midtown values: biblical faithfulness, gospel-centeredness, transformative relationships, diverse fellowship, creativity and the arts, and relentless mission.
- Passion for and Experience with cross-cultural mission
- Embody the Sojourn Church Midtown vision, as adapted for Sojourn College

Reporting and Supervising Roles

Expectations

- Maintains a lifestyle that represents the gospel and is above reproach.
- Adheres to the Sojourn College staff covenant.
- Aims to work between 40-45 hours per week.
- All Sojourn College staff are support raised – the applicant must be willing to raise and maintain their own funds for this role.
- Commit to at least 2 years in this role
