There is a peace that is colling you home.

There is a peace that is calling you home

You've been tempted and shaken, tested and failed You've been so far from Jesus, too close to hell Your vision's been clouded by this world's delight But I tell you you're not of this world so stand up and fight You're not of this world so stand up and fight

There's a peace to settle your soul
There is a peace that is calling you home

There is a peace to settle your soul
There is a peace that is calling you home
There is a peace perfect and true
The prince of peace is calling for you...
